

BLUE ALCHEMY

STORIES OF Indigo

A special screening of the new feature-length film by Mary Lance

This documentary is about indigo, a blue dye that has captured the human imagination for millennia. It is also about remarkable people around the globe who are reviving indigo in projects that are intended to improve life in their communities, preserve cultural integrity, improve the environment, and bring beauty to the world.

A soiree with a Q & A session with the Director and book signing by Jenny Balfour-Paul of her new book, Indigo: Egyptian Mummies to Blue Jeans

Wednesday 7 March 2012 at 18.00 hrs at the Northampton Suite, City University, Northampton Square, EC1V

Tickets: £6 at the door - wine and nibbles from 18.15 hrs

Further details and map from: <http://www.colour.org.uk/meetingMarchA12.html>